

Google Login

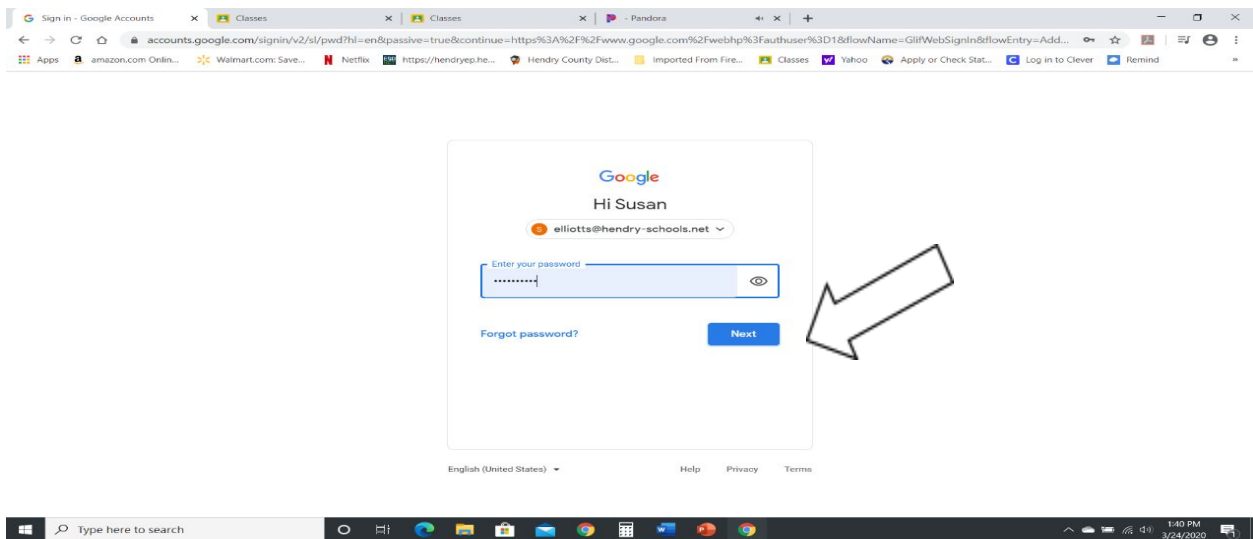

1. Go to Google and click "Sign in"

2. Type in school issued email then click “Next”
 - a. School issued email will be first and last initials and your lunch number
 - i. Example: xy123456@hendry-schools.net

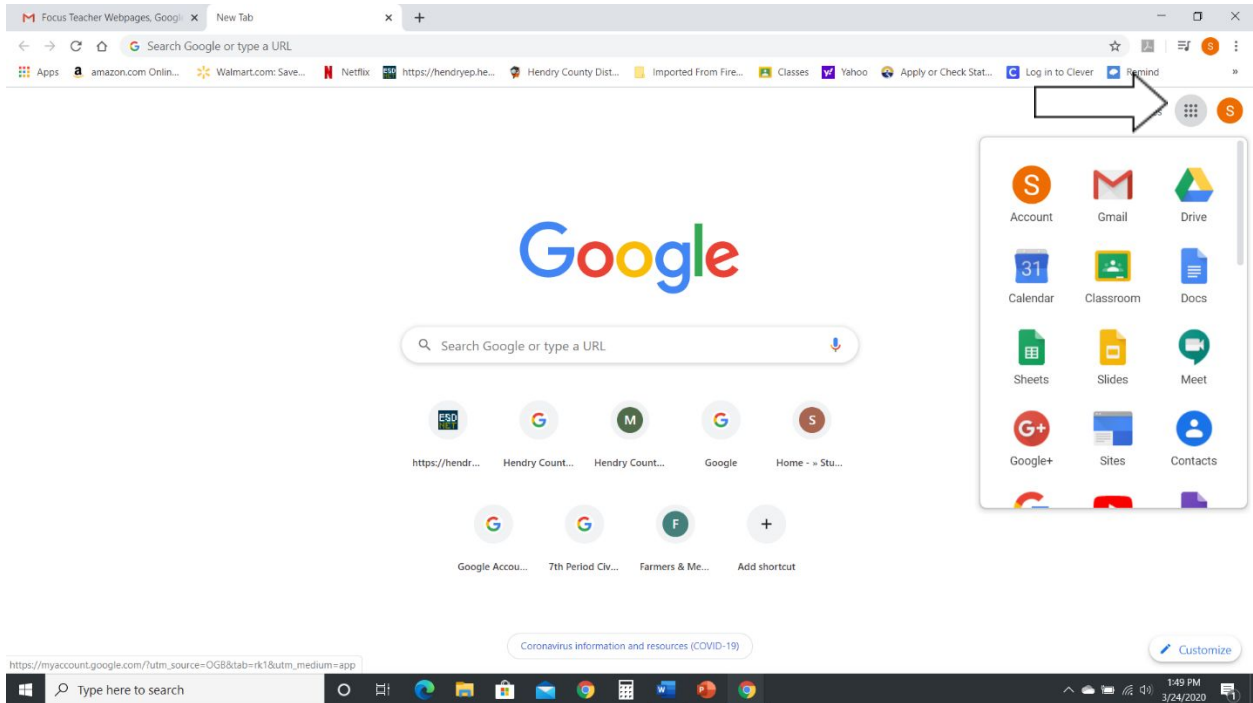

3. Type in school issued password and click “Next”
 - a. School issued password is Capital first initial, lower case last initial and your 8-digit birthday
 - i. Example: Xy08132007

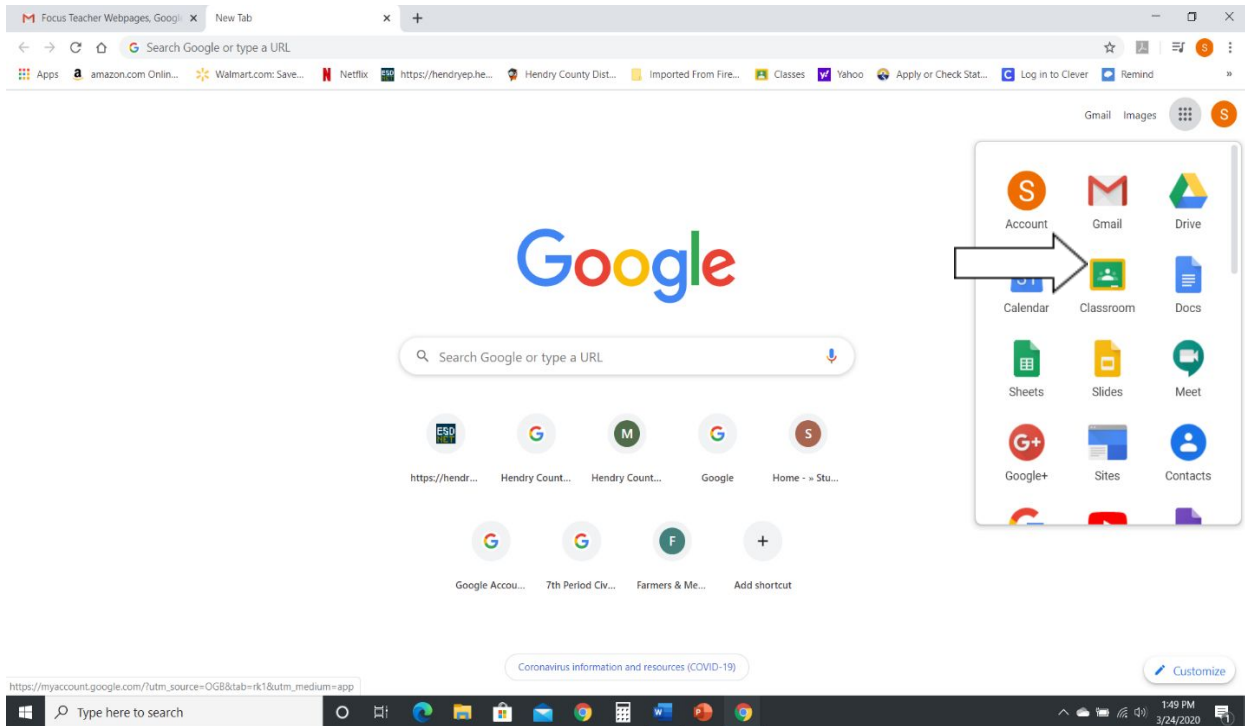

Google Classroom Access

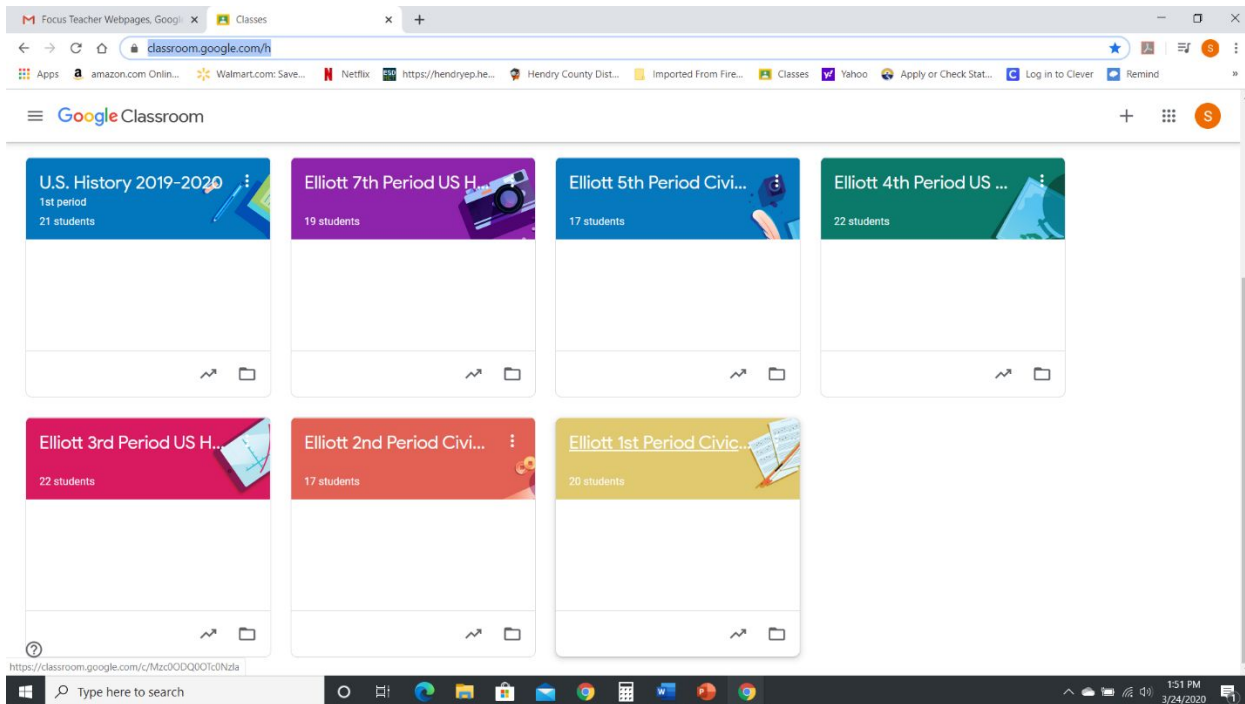

1. If you are already signed into your school Google account you will click on the waffle in the upper right corner.

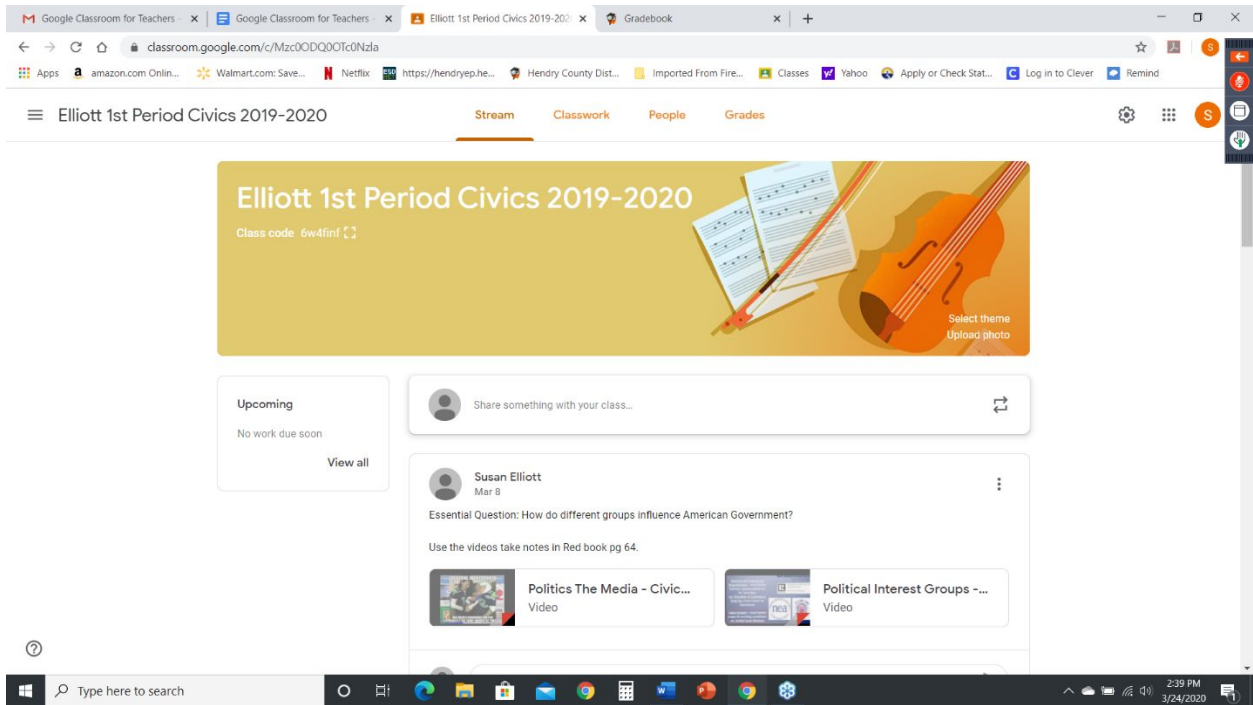

2. Click on the "Classroom" icon in the drop down box

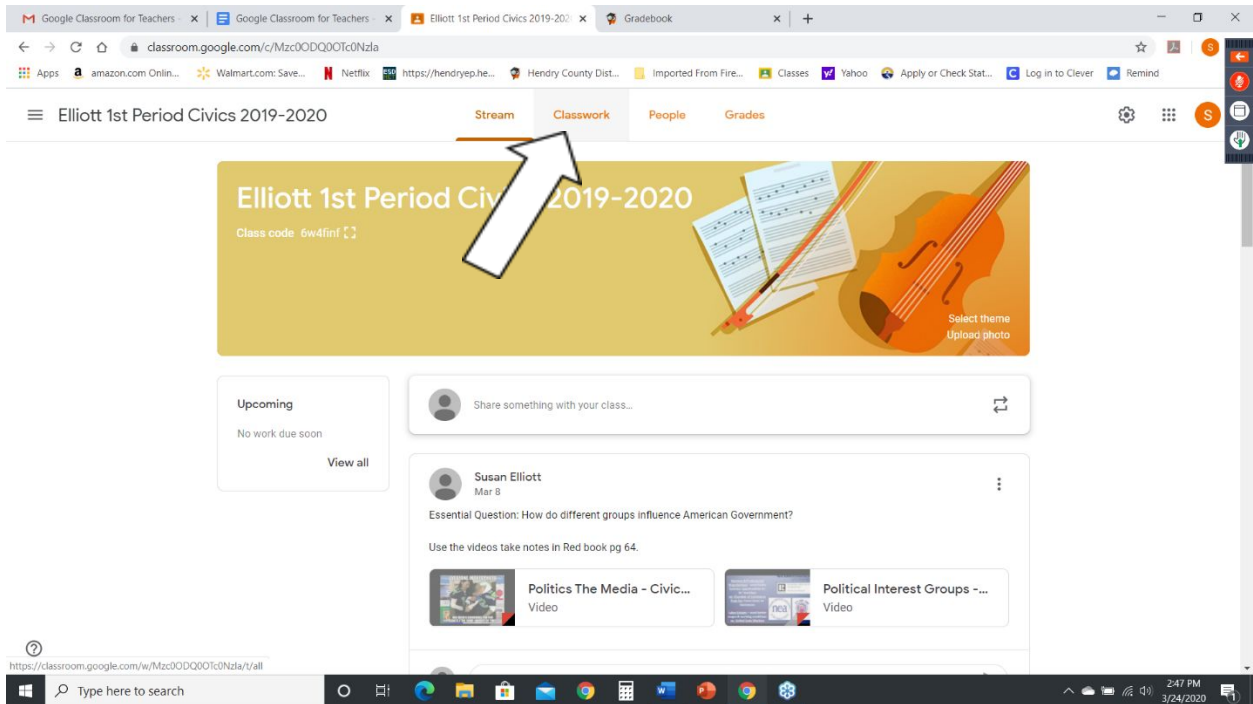

3. This is where all your teachers Google Classrooms will be listed click on the specific class you need to complete assignments in

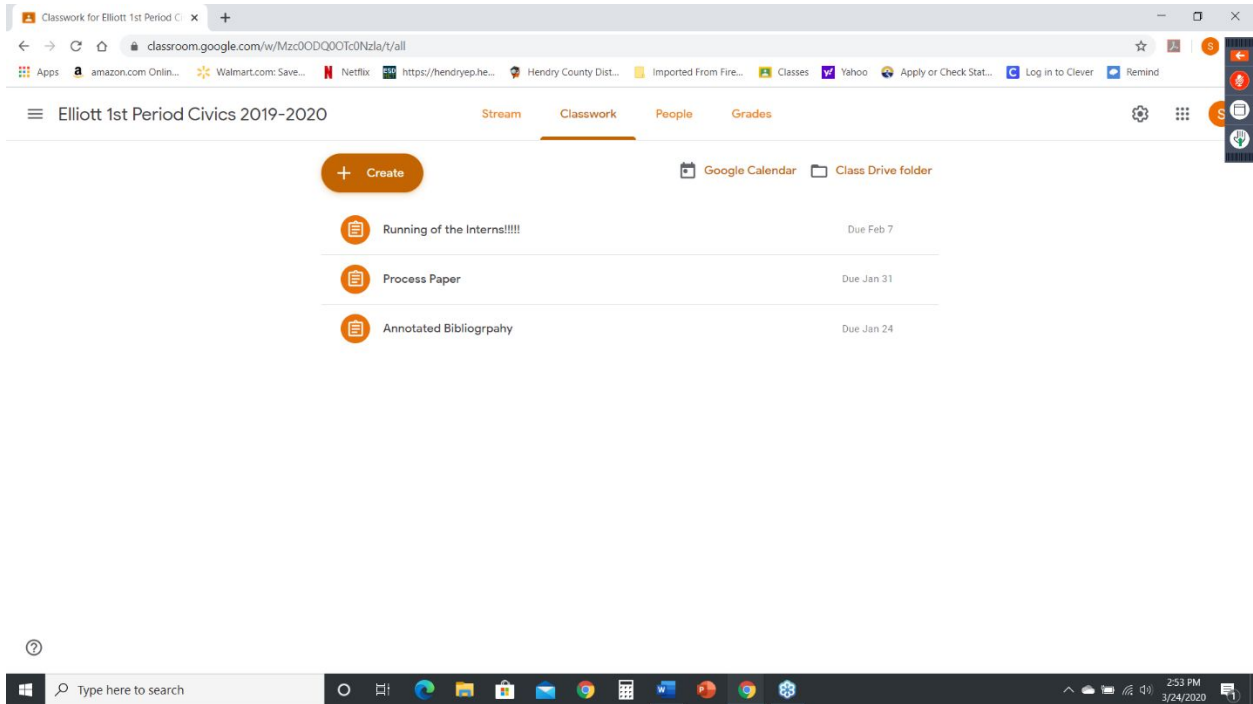

4. Look for instructions in the stream section. This is where I will post information and videos for the whole class

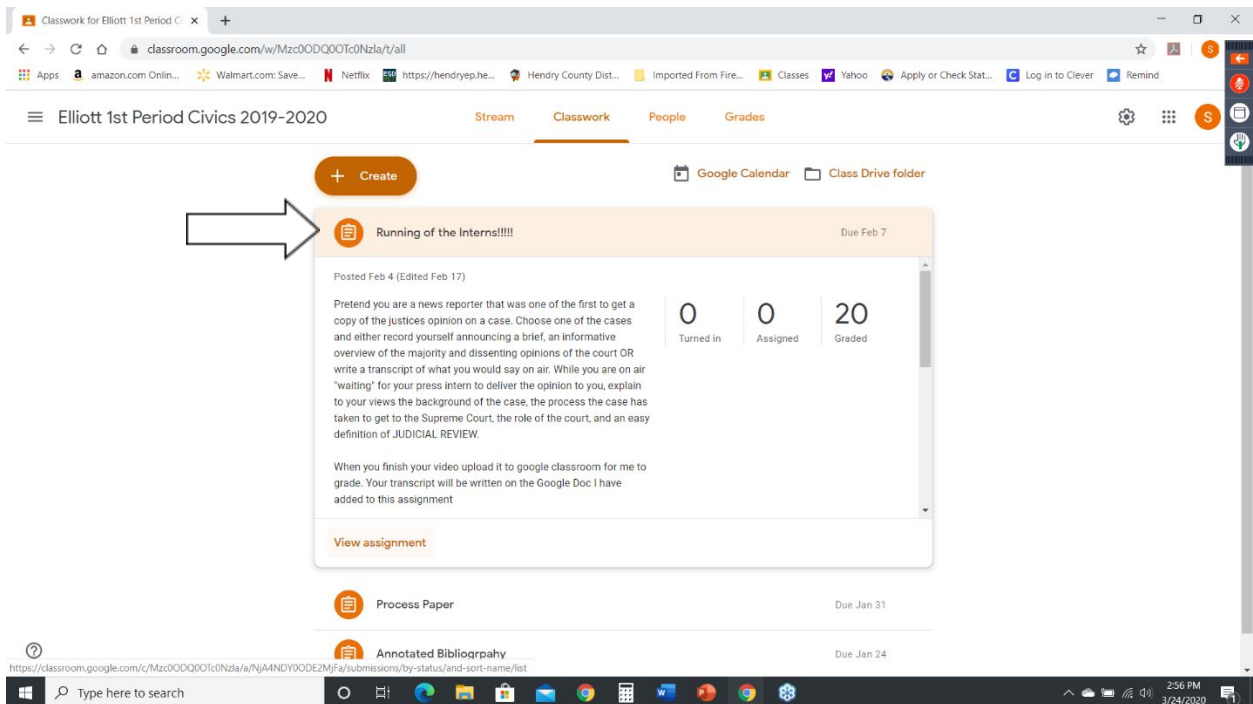

5. To find assignments click on “Classwork” at the top

6. This is where you will find assignments with instructions and due dates that teachers have posted for the week

7. You will then click on the assignment title. A drop down box will appear click on "View Assignment"

8. You will see the instructions and any documents or videos you will need to use to complete the assignment. In order to complete an assignment, you MUST NOT delete any Google Docs you will use for the assignment. Deleting the Google Doc will result in a 0 for the assignment. When you have completed the assignment click the “Turn in” button at the top right

The screenshot shows a Google Classroom interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays the URL: `classroom.google.com/c/Mzc0ODQ0OTc0Nzla/a/NjA4NDY0ODE2Mjfa/details`. The page title is "Running of the Interns!!!!" with a due date of "Due Feb 7" and a value of "200 points". The teacher is identified as "Susan Elliott" with a last edit of "Feb 4 (Edited Feb 17)".

The assignment instructions are as follows:

Pretend you are a news reporter that was one of the first to get a copy of the justices opinion on a case. Choose one of the cases and either record yourself announcing a brief, an informative overview of the majority and dissenting opinions of the court OR write a transcript of what you would say on air. While you are on air "waiting" for your press intern to deliver the opinion to you, explain to your views the background of the case, the process the case has taken to get to the Supreme Court, the role of the court, and an easy definition of JUDICIAL REVIEW.

When you finish your video upload it to google classroom for me to grade. Your transcript will be written on the Google Doc I have added to this assignment

Your video must:

1. Include a well spoken/written brief description of the background, Supreme Court decision, which part of the Constitution the supreme Court used to make the decision
2. Be original and creative, but organized
3. Be visually appealing
4. Remember, you get brownie points if it's creative and exciting

Your court case is DUE at the end of class Friday, February 7, 2020.

The rubric for this assignment and detailed instructions can be found in your Red books on pg 30, I have also attached a copy of page 30 in this assignment as a reference.

Attached to the assignment are three items:

- "Running of the Interns" (Google Docs)
- "Running of the Interns.pdf" (PDF)
- "Watch: The running of the S..." (YouTube video, 1 minute)

The bottom of the screenshot shows a Windows taskbar with a search bar, several application icons, and a system tray showing the time as 3:11 PM on 3/24/2020.